results	remembering ~ penny crittle
graded pairs category 1	"Penny Crittle passed away on Wednesday. She was diagnosed with cancer just after she enjoyed playing in the pairs in Surfers Paradise, and survived long enough to play in the Women's Butler last week.
1 R. Livingston & P. Hill 244	Penny was a very special person. A friend to all whom she cared for, and a loyal devotee to those close to her. Her bridge career spanned more than twenty years and she enjoyed many successes both in Open and Women's bridge.
2 G. Pick & S. Pick 233	Penny was open, yet private. For those of us who had the privilege to know Penny, the loss is enormous.
3 J. Puskas & A. De Luca 220	She died peacefully surrounded by her partner, Ross Moore, her four daughters, and her great friend Patsy. She was 58. May she rest in peace."
4 P. Purbrick & A. Blecher 209
5 S. Ozenir & G. Atkinson 207

autobiography ~ kitty muntz	Auditorium Vugraph Presentation 10.00am
I learnt bridge in 1980, together with my husband. We played together for a short time but were never going to have a good bridge partnership because of our very different ideas of the bidding - basically mine was a disciplined approach, believing that consistency was vital, whereas Graeme's was a totally undisciplined approach believing that wild pre-empt mucked up the opponents and added fun to the game.	Auditorium Vugraph Presentation 2.30pm
Graeme dropped out of bridge shortly after we started a family, as the demands of children, work and his number one passion, squash, did not leave enough time.	Victory Dinner 7.00pm sincere thanks to all those volunteers who gave freely of their time to help create a friendly and welcoming atmosphere for the melbourne 2004 ANC ♠ ♥ ♦ ♣ Felicity Beale likes to remind me of the time she played against us and we got a particularly bad result on a board (wild bidding by Graeme no doubt!) - I leaned over and said "If you bid like that I'll have to find myself a new partner". His speedy reply was "You'll have to find someone else to play bridge with too!"

vugraph

Saturday from 10:00 am, we will be undertaking a live vugraph presentation of the last 40 boards of the final on a large projection screen in the "View Rooms". Expert commentators will be on hand.

In addition, there will be online vugraph (<http://www.abf.com.au/events/anc/2004/vugraph.html>) of the ANC all day Friday and Saturday through www.bridgebase.com
