

2011 BUTLER FINALISED

In a very close finish in the Open Butler, ACT combo Ian Robinson—Arjuna deLivera overtook New Zealand international and Australian youth international Nabil Edgton on the very last board of the match to snatch victory by 2 VPs.

The Women's Butler was also a close affair, but Margaret Bourke (ACT) and Greer Tucker (Queensland) clinched the title in the last round by winning 23-7 VPs. Second placed Sue Lusk—Therese Tully, also had a win, but only 18-12, so they ended 2 VPs behind the winners.

Two Sydney pairs were first and runners up in the Seniors' event. Les Varadi—Elli Urbach were right up there last year, only to be overtaken in the final round.

This year, they hung onto their lead, winning by 4 VPs from Judy Marks—Adam Rutkowski.

Now all three pairs will be wondering where they will go for their international foray, using the generous purse provided by the ABF.
