THE HEART BREAK 1 IMP LOSS

THE FIRST AND THE LAST

Hong lost 14 imps in the last set. It started with the 1st board when both sides bid their spade game. We are second guessing, based on the leads available in the records;

Board:1 Dealer:North Vul:None

NORTH			EAST
♠ J 9 7			♠ A Q 10 6

China received a trump lead in the Open Room and declarer could pitch a losing heart on the fourth club after drawing trumps. He lost two diamonds and a heartiness the Closed Room the defense got off to a winning start by cashing their 2 hearts. Declarer had to lose 2 diamonds. Down one. And then the big ticket hand-The Last Board.

ITS THAT LAST BOARD !

Mark Horton must have a premonition, for he sent us an article for these Daily Bulletins, based on the the last board deciding the fate of a match, the US Selection Trials in this case. Refer Bulletin No. Well Mark, here's another one of those scenarios- That Last Board.

In the 3rd Asia Cup Men's Finals, China was trailing China Hongkong by 6 Imps with one board to go. And along came this:

The defence was helpful allowing declarer to score +140 in the Open Room. In the Closed Room the Weak Two with both majors opening by east made west declarer. In spite of helpful diamond lead declarer mistimed to go down to lose 5 imps.

In the Ladies Finals in the Open Room The Chinese East went 2 down in a 2S contract. The other room also saw China going 3 down in 3C to lose 9 imps.

In Men's match the open room west could have beaten the contract on diamond lead but reasonably enough lead the heart ace to see the dummy. The contract scored as the diamond loser vanished on the third club. The Closed Rooms defender too choose the same lead to score the same number of tricks to lose 1 imp. The ladies match saw the biggest swing of the session when Chinese Taipei scored doubled game in spades in the open room & heart game in the closed room to gain 16 imps. A Club lead would bid 5H.

In the closed room China Hong Kong bid up to 5H by west scoring +710. In the open room they were allowed to play in 4S undoubled for -100 to gain their 1st big pick up of 12 imps.

The women match in the Open Room China scored 4H making all tricks on diamond lead. The Closed Room saw a violent auction and when the smoke cleared China lost 3 imps instead of gaining 13.

The score after the 1st set : China 34 - China Hong Kong 29 (Men)

The Chinese Taipei women steadily piled up imps to end the 1st session with 56 imps - China 15
