West leads the three of trumps. East takes this with the ace of trumps and returns the five of trumps, West following. Assuming that East has the king of spades, what is your plan to make ten tricks?

Tim Bourke's Problem – Solution

If you still have the five of trumps in your hand after trick three, you have five trumps, two diamonds and presumably two spades. As the seven of hearts is an entry to dummy, then if you can set up a club trick in dummy, that trick and the spade finesse will be enough for the contract. As East probably has the ace of clubs for his double, it seems the contract may require West to hold the ten of clubs.

However, there is an extra chance! You should cash the ace-king of diamonds before leading the jack of clubs. Suppose the full deal is:

♥ 7 4 2
♦ 10 9 5 4 2
♣ K 9 5
♠ J 9 8 3	♠ K 10 6 2
♥ 8 6	♥ A 3
♦ Q 8 3	♦ J 7 6
♣ 8 7 6 2	♣ A Q 10 4
♠ A Q 5
♥ K Q J 10 9 5
♦ A K
♣ J 3

East take the jack of clubs with the queen but he has no good return. A diamond return is hopeless because the suit is 3-3; you would ruff high and then cross to the seven of trumps to take two discards on dummy's diamond winners. If East plays a spade instead, you will finesse the queen, cash the ace and ruff your spade loser in dummy. The only remaining suit is clubs, but ace and another club will give the lead to dummy's king.

A final point about the given layout – if you followed with the five of trumps at trick one or two, then all legitimate chances of making four hearts had expired by the time you came to lead at trick three.

The First Bid Of The Week

Matthew McManus produced a spectacular effort for his very first bid of the week. The first bidding card which he pulled out was

Partner had opened 3♦ as dealer at all vul. and Matthew held

♠ A 3 ♥ A 2 ♦ A K Q 10 2 ♣ A Q J 5

Not bad, is it?

Five trumps, five keycards and 100 honours!

Sadly, Matthew was playing with Michael Ware so it just wasn't enough on this layout..

4	♠ J76	Dir: W

	♦ 876	S - - 1 1 -
7		E - 6 - - 6
4 24		W - 6 - - 6
5

This hand created problems at other tables.

George Smolanko and Paul Wyer had a smooth auction to the top spot:

West	East
	2♣
2♦	2NT
4♦	4♠
6♦

but in the other room things were not so successful

	2♣
2♦	2NT
3♠	4♠

Apparently, the 3♠ bid was some sort of minor suit show and East produced a Memory Coup.

It seems rather undignified to play your 3-2 fit with a 7-5 side suit!

Perhaps the biggest surprise, though, was for Khokan Bagchi who led his singleton diamond, hoping to score a ruff; only to find that he'd given partner, Matthew Thompson, one.

Against Ron Klinger, the opponents did better than McManus/Ware.

A 3♣ transfer pre-empt saw East settle for the small slam. Ron's team-mates Andy Braithwaite and Bill Haughie had to cope with a little interference in order to push the board:

Their auction:

West	North	East	South
P	P	2♦	2♠
P	P	2NT	P
3♣	x	3NT	P
4♦	P	4♥	P
5♣	x	P	P
5♦	P	5♠	P
6♦	END

2♦ was Andy and Bill's big bid, 3♣ was a major suit enquiry and 3NT denied a four or five card major. 4♦, 5♣ and 5♠ were cues and the board was flat.

Others did not handle interference quite so successfully:

Where I watched, East opened 2♣ after two passes. South, Nick Irens, captain of the top seeds, tried his luck with 2♠. West passed and Epsen Erichsen raised to 3♠. This gave East a problem which he attempted to solve with a double. West passed as did Epsen. West then led the ♦A, out of turn. The director explained Nick's options and he chose to accept the lead and have Epsen play the contract. Epsen ruffed this and played the ♠Q which was allowed to stand. He continued a small heart which West took with the King to switch to a club. The 10, Jack and 6 made up the trick. East cashed his ♥A before playing the ♦K. The secret diamond suit yielded a ruff and discard for declarer as Epsen shed a club from table. Declarer continued the Jack of spades to East's Ace and the final indignity for the defence came when West ruffed his partner's Ace of clubs continuation. One off was not a triumph for the defence.

Another board from the same round saw New Zealand father and son combination, Brett and Tyrel Glass in imaginative mode. Try a lead problem:

You hold

♠ K Q 10 9 4 ♥ A ♦ A Q 10 5 4 2 ♣ 4

LHO opens 2♦ - game force or weak two in a major and RHO bids 3NT. In your wisdom, you choose to pass and lead...?

Against Brett and declarer, Tyrel, South chose a spade. This was eighth best on

16	♠ 7653	Dir: W
	♥ K932	Vul: E-W
	♦ K83
	♣ J6
♠ AJ8	♠ 2
♥ J87654	♥ Q10
♦ 96	♦ J7
♣ 82	♣ AKQ109753
7	♠ KQ1094	♣♦♥♠NT
6 12	♥ A	N - 4 - 4 -
15	♦ AQ10542	S - 4 - 4 -
	♣ 4	E 3 - 1 - -
		W 3 - 1 - -

Any diamond or the ♥A (followed by a diamond switch) would have been more satisfactory than the chosen ♠K.

Graciously, Tyrel exposed his hand and claimed nine black tricks.

Michael and Vivien Cornell, also trans-Tasman visitors, combined to good effect in the defence of another hand in this set:

15	♠ AJ5	Dir: S
	♥ KQ10765	Vul: N-S
	♦ J102
	♣ 4
♠ 762	♠ 943
♥ J94	♥ A8
♦ AK654	♦ Q83
♣ J6	♣ 98753
11	♠ KQ108	♣♦♥♠NT
9 6	♥ 32	N 3 - 4 4 1
14	♦ 97	S 3 - 4 4 1
	♣ AKQ102	E - - - -
		W - - - -

The suction had been

West	North	East	South
			1♣
1♦	1♥	2♦	1♠
P	3♥	P	4♥
End

Vivien led the Ace and King of diamonds and then switched to a trump. Michael took the King with his Ace and played the ♦Q to tap dummy. Now declarer could not finesse against Vivien's ♥J. Notice that, if it is Vivien who plays a third diamond, declarer can prevail by finessing the ♥10.

ANC 2009 Canberra 3-18 July at Hellenic Club

Butler Stages 1 to 3 have two sections – Open and Womens. Butler Stage 1 will be held over 12 matches of 10 boards from 7.30 pm Friday 3 July with the last session beginning 2 pm Sunday 5 July. You can play in Butler Stage 1 without being obliged to play in Stage 2. Come for the weekend if that is all the time you have available for this quality bridge.

Butler Stage 2 begins at 7.30 pm on Sunday 5 July and has 14 matches with the last session beginning at 3 pm on Tuesday 7 July. Butler Seniors A has 12 matches beginning at 10 am Monday 6 July. Butler Stage 3 and Butler Seniors B begin on Wednesday 8 July.

Once Butler Stage 2 or Butler Seniors A is over, why not flow on to the ANC Swiss Butler Pairs that begin at 10 am on Wednesday 8 July for 6 sessions with the last session beginning at 2 pm on Friday 10 July?

If you are a restricted category player, you could consider the Restricted Swiss Pairs that begins at 10 am on July 6 for 4 sessions. Restricted players have less than 300 masterpoints at 30 June 2009. There are no evening sessions for these events.

A feature of the Daily Bulletin at the New Zealand National Congress is the “Even Homer Nods” Award which is given annually to the expert player who manages to do the dumbest thing at the table during Congress. Richard Solomon, New Zealand Bridge Development Officer and editor of New Zealand Bridge magazine would be a strong contender if I was making a Homer award this week. As a matter of fact, come to think of it, Richard is a strong contender every time I make a Homer Award – funny that!

Richard was admiring when partner, the long-suffering (though he’s only got himself to blame for the company he keeps) Jonathan Westoby opened a weak 2♥.

“How splendid!” thinks (?) Richard and wheels out a grand slam force – 5NT.

Dutifully, Jonathan bid 7♠ - you see 2♥ showed a weak 2 in SPADES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

And Richard said

Not wishing to put his hand down as dummy, Richard “rescued” himself to 7NT after West had doubled. This was also doubled. There was no good news on George Bilski declared 4♥ and, after some preliminary skirmishes, had to play trumps. He cashed the Ace and noted West’s 10. George decided that this was a “restricted choice” situation and so he continued the suit with a small one and only lost one trick in the suit.

At the other table, Al Simpson faced the same problem for the opposition. He began with a trump towards the closed hand and finessed the 8. This lost to the 10. On the next round of trumps, Al again played towards the closed hand but Ryszard Jedrychowski dropped the Jack which persuaded Al to finesse.

Welcome To Australia

Surely one of the features of the 2009 Summer Festival is the presence of three current Bermuda Bowl champions. Boye Brogelund, Ulf Tundal and Glenn Groetheim were members of the Norwegian team which triumphed last year and are here now as part of the Irens team. Glenn and Ulf received a warm welcome to Australian bridge when they played against Margaret Bourke and David Hoffman in the second round.

First board up was :

8	♠ Q432	Dir: W
	♥ 1087	Vul: None
	♦ A87643	♠ J105
	♣ A87643	♥ K654

Ulf and David passed and Glenn opened a weak, precision style 2♣. Margaret doubled for takeout but David didn't. -500 probably didn't feel like a great start to the match.

(I did hear that at various tables, some Easts chose an adventurous 3♣ after two passes and were carted out on their shields to the tune of 800.)

Then two boards later, Ulf and Glenn had a relay mix-up. In fairness, I should point out that, to my surprise, Glenn tells me that he and Ulf are NOT full time professional players, They both have full time jobs and have played little bridge since the Mindsport Championships. I had assumed, like many others I would guess, that they were full time players.

10	♠ 82	Dir: E

Ulf opened a strong club after two passes and then wound up the relay. Eventually, he bid 6♥

Margaret Bourke and David Hoffman gave Ulf Tundal (left) and Glenn Groetheim plenty to think about in their second round match and, in answer to David's query, announced that Glenn had shown a 1-5-1-6 shape. Dummy was something of a disappointment. Ulf found the Queen of spades without difficulty and got one club away on the long spade. Now he only needed a kind diamond position - there wasn't one.

Then on the next, Margaret and David bid the excellent grand.

Their auction

Margaret (S)	David (N)
1♠	2♥
3♣	3♦
3♥	4NT
5♣	5NT
7♥

3♦ was fourth suit and 5♣ showed 0 or 3 keycards for hearts. 5NT asked Margaret if she wanted to bid the grand – she did and David made thirteen tricks without breathing heavily.

Then on the next, Glenn ran into another foul trump break.

12	♠ Q10965	Dir: W
	♥ A752	Vul: N-S

10	♦ KJ63	S - - - - -
	♣ KQ8432	E - 3 3 3 2
		W - 3 3 2 2

Ulf opened 1♥ and Glenn made a pre-emptive jump to 3♣. This became the final contract. David did not look unhappy at this outcome.

Margaret led the ♣K which Glenn ducked. A second club saw dummy's Jack score and Glenn played a third round with the Ace. David discarded a heart and Glenn a diamond. Glenn cashed dummy's ♦A and then ruffed a diamond. The Ace of spades followed but the King which came next told Glenn the bad news.

He switched to a heart to the King and David's Ace. David returned the suit to the Jack and Queen. Glenn ruffed a diamond in his hand and the last three cards in the North and East hands were

♠ Q 10 9

♠ J 8 3

Runners-up in the Seniors' Teams were

Bobby Richman, Ron Klinger, David Hoffman and George Gaspar

Although each of David's was bigger than the corresponding card in Glenn's hand, he could only take two of the tricks when Glenn exited the 3.

Things quietened down from this point and the Irens team ran out to a narrow victory. Nonetheless, Margaret and David certainly let the favourites know that it will not be an easy ride this week.

A Trump Endplay

Elizabeth Fanos, playing with Mary Classen overcame a 5-0 trump break to bring home a slam in the second round of the S.W.P.T.
